

Do not give the entertainment industry control of my home entertainment system. I will not buy crippled electronics. Do not try to force people to pay the bill to protect the dieing business model of a greedy, abusive monopoly. They should be putting their energy into innovating, not trying to make innovation illegal.